| Closing date for applications: | 22 October 2021; 23:59 (CET)² |

The European Public Prosecutor's Office (EPPO) is seeking talented individuals to establish a reserve list for Internal Audit Officer positions.

As detailed in the vacancy notice, we are looking for an audit professional who has excellent interpersonal and communication skills, is service-orientated and has an ability to engage and support a recently established EU organisation through its establishment and initial growth phases.

In essence, we are looking for a candidate who is seeking the opportunity to be part of the development of this new EU public administration component and to directly contribute to its success by building-up its Internal Audit Capability. He/she will establish and improve internal audit operating procedures and present fully independently findings and recommendation to management for consideration. The audit professionals considering this position should boast excellent active listening and negotiation skills, in particular to explain and support his/her proposals to senior management.

1. The European Public Prosecutor's Office as a prospective employer

Under the leadership of the European Chief Prosecutor (ECP), the European Public Prosecutor's Office ('the EPPO') is the first European Union independent Prosecution service.

The EPPO is responsible for carrying out criminal investigations and prosecutions into crimes affecting the Union budget as one of the European Union Institutions and Bodies delivering the European Union's Justice System. It became operational on 1 June 2021.

Through the ongoing build-up and upcoming development phases, the EPPO offers an innovative, challenging and rewarding working environment to professionals looking to consolidate and develop a career in the design and delivery of a robust control environment to a novel constituent of the European Union (EU) institutional setup.

2. Duties and responsibilities

The Internal Audit Officer will deliver, in conjunction with the Internal Audit Service³ (IAS) work plan in-line with the recognised International Audit Standards (IPPF)⁴ and standards, EPPO's internal audit capability; she/he will implement fully independently assurance and consulting services to the EPPO's management, as well as professional and high-quality audit services, designed to add value and improve EPPO's operations and administration. He/she will advise the EPPO's management on dealing with risks, by issuing independent opinions on the quality of management and control systems and by issuing recommendations for improving systems and processes and promoting sound financial management.

Reporting directly to the Head of the EPPO College and providing operational support to the Administrative Director in the deployment of EPPO's control environment, the tasks for the Internal Audit Officer will include, but not be limited to the following:

- Identifying elements of the EPPO risk-based Internal Audit Strategy. Proposing rolling three-year and yearly audit plans for review and adoption;
- Executing internal audit engagements required by the yearly audit plan in accordance with recognised internal audit standards;
- Ensuring that advisory and audit tasks are performed in line with the International Internal Audit Standards;
- Assisting the EPPO management in identifying and controlling risks affecting the achievement of the EPPO's objectives;
- Advising the EPPO management and staff on risk management and internal control activities, and on training program in related fields. Delivering where relevant elements of that training program. Making recommendations to the EPPO Management in order to improve efficiency and effectiveness of the EPPO operations and control environment;
- Monitoring the implementation of audit recommendations and report on these to the Administrative Director and the College;

4. Application procedure

Candidates are required to check carefully before submitting an application whether they meet all the eligibility criteria.

In the Application Form, under 'a) Selection Criteria' in the field of 'II. PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE' indicate, giving examples, how you meet each one of the selection criteria (essential and advantageous) listed in this vacancy notice. Please name the criteria you are describing. For any criteria that you would like to leave blank, write 'n/a' next to the number.

The candidate/job holder must either be a holder of a valid security clearance up to the level of "SECRET UE/EU SECRET" or be willing to undergo the national security vetting procedure (in order to be allowed to perform her/his job).

All applications must be in English.

For applications to be valid, candidates shall:

- Use and duly complete the EPPO Application Form, which can be found on the EPPO website <https://www.eppo.europa.eu/how-to-apply>;
- Send the application (preferably in pdf format), only by email to EU-EPPO-RECRUITMENT@ec.europa.eu by the deadline;
- The subject of the e-mail should include the reference of this vacancy, followed by the candidate's surname;
- The Application Form must be saved as follows: SURNAME_Name_Reference number.

Incomplete applications or applications sent without using the EPPO application form will be disqualified and treated as non-eligible.

Please note that if at any stage of the selection procedure it is established that any of the requested information provided by an applicant is false, the applicant in question will be disqualified.

Please, make sure that your application form (word or pdf) is readable, as no further communication will take place.

Supporting documents (e.g. certified copies of degrees/diplomas, references, proof of experience, etc.) should not be sent at this stage but must be submitted at a later stage of the procedure.

Please note that the time period between the closing date for applications submission and the end of the short listing applicants for the interview phase may take up to several months.

Due to the high number of applications received in each selection procedure, only shortlisted candidates will be contacted.

5. Closing date for applications

The closing date for application is 22 October 2021; 23:59 (CET) (please check the time zones).

The EPPO will disregard any application received after the deadline. Applicants are strongly advised not to wait until the last day to submit their applications, since heavy internet traffic or fault with the internet connection could lead to difficulties in submission. The EPPO cannot be held responsible for any delay due to such difficulties.

6. Selection procedure

The candidates' applications will first be assessed against the eligibility and selection criteria. The most suitable candidates will be invited for a written test and an interview by a Selection Board.

Based on these interviews and the results of the written tests, The Selection Board might propose a list of adequately skilled candidates to the Administrative Director to be included in a reserve list (talent pool) who will make the final decision. Such list will be valid until 31/12/2022, and might be extended.

In accordance with Articles 11 and 11a of the Staff Regulations (SR) and Article 11 of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union (CEOS), the appointed candidate is required to make a declaration of interests before the recruitment. The EPPO Appointing Authority will examine whether the successful candidate has any personal interest which may impair his/her independence or any other conflict of interest in relation to the position offered and will adopt appropriate measures.

All applications are treated fairly. Applicants will be assessed on the basis of their qualifications and in strict compliance with the principle of equal opportunities in order to have the best possible match between the profile of the candidate and the requirements of the job.

Under no circumstances should candidates contact the Selection Board, directly or indirectly, concerning this selection or promote their candidature directly or indirectly through any other means outside the terms of this application and selection processes. The Appointing Authority reserves the right to disqualify any candidate who would disregard this instruction.

7. Appointment and conditions of employment

Successful candidate may be offered a contract of employment, which ensures continuation of the person's employment in the category of temporary staff 2(f). The contract shall be concluded without interruption of the contract with the agency of origin and shall be in the same grade and seniority in the grade as well as at the same step and the seniority in the step as the preceding contract.

As a general rule, the end date of the contract concluded and of the preceding contract shall be the same. If the contract with the agency of origin was for an indefinite period, the member of temporary staff 2(f) shall also be engaged by the new agency for an indefinite period. In the event that the preceding contract comes to its natural end on the day of the move, the duration of the contract concluded shall be the same as that the new agency would have set in case of a renewal of contract.

The initial period of the employment contract for an temporary agent 2(f) is 3 (three) years, which may be renewed for another period of 3 (three) years. After the second period, the contract may be renewed for an indefinite period.

In addition to the basic salary, the following benefits might apply:

- Additional specific allowances (e.g. expatriation, household, dependent child, installation) depending on the individual's family situation and the place of origin;
- Flexible work arrangements (such as part-time work, flexible working hours, teleworking);
- Training and development opportunities;
- Annual leave entitlement of at least 24 days;
- Maternity/paternity leave and parental leave under certain conditions;
- Sickness and Unemployment Insurance Scheme enabling access to care worldwide;
- EU Civil Service Pension rights after 10 years of service;

The salary is subject to a Community tax deducted at source and staff members are exempt of national taxation.

8. Equal opportunities

The EPPO applies a policy of equal opportunities and considers applications without discrimination on any grounds such as sex, race, color, ethnic or social origin, genetic features, language, religion or belief, political or any other opinion, membership of a national minority, property, birth, disability, age or sexual orientation.

9. Privacy Notice

The EPPO processes the personal data submitted by the applicants as part of the application form, in any submitted supporting document at any stage in the selection and recruitment process, and communication related thereto. The purpose of this processing operation is to assess the suitability of candidates for a position at the EPPO and to administer the documentation related to the selection and/or recruitment. This includes also the processing of the submitted data for related administrative aspects, such as e.g. financial reimbursements, calculation of entitlements, etc.

During this processing, the personal data will be made available to selected staff working in Human Resources, Finance & Procurement, and in case of appeals or complaints, the Legal Service. Further, it will be made accessible to the members of the Selection Board, the Appointing Authority and respective supporting staff. Lastly, it may also be shared with other parties in the context and purpose of audits, inspections and internal investigations, be they internal or by supervisory authorities.

The personal data collected for this purpose will be stored for no longer than 3 (three) years following the financial discharge for the year in which the recruitment was finalized, in order to comply with audit obligations, unless ongoing legal proceedings, investigations or audits require their continued storage. Where the process led to employment of a candidate, some of the documentation and personal data contained therein will be carried over into the personnel file and subject to the regime applicable thereto.

The processing is necessary to select and recruit candidates suitable to cover the vacancies of the EPPO and therefore enable it to perform its tasks. The legal basis being implemented and binding on the EPPO's selection and recruitment process are the Staff Regulations of Officials and the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union and their implementing rules. The applicable legal framework for data protection purposes for this processing of administrative personal data is Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018 (OJ L 295 of 21.11.2018).

The applicant has the right at any time to request access to, rectification, restriction or erasure of their personal data. To exercise these rights, request assistance in their exercise or questions thereto, or file a complaint, they may contact the data controller, or the Data Protection Officer of the EPPO. They also have the right to address themselves to the European Data Protection Supervisor to lodge a complaint.

The controller is the EPPO, and for this process coordinated by the Head of Human Resources, and can be contacted by email at EU-EPPO-RECRUITMENT@ec.europa.eu

The Data Protection Officer can be reached at EPPO-DPO@epo.europa.eu.

The European Data Protection Supervisor can be contacted at edps@edps.europa.eu.
