The European Public Prosecutor's Office (EPPO) is seeking applications for the position of traineeship for the HR Unit.

The EPPO is the independent public prosecution office of the European Union, responsible for investigating, prosecuting and bringing to judgment crimes against the financial interests of the EU.

If you are interested in being part of a thriving multicultural organization, check out our website, where you will find more information about our activities, career opportunities at the EPPO, and living and working in Luxembourg.

1. THE ROLE

As a trainee in the HR unit, you have a unique opportunity to contribute to the development of EPPO's workforce in a meaningful way. By actively engaging in HR initiatives and embracing the organization's vision and values, you can help shape EPPO into a dynamic and inclusive workplace that drives success across all its functions.

Working under the strategic guidance of EPPO's Administrative Director, the HR unit is dedicated to providing and developing a wide range of comprehensive Human Resources services. These services are crucial for EPPO to achieve its mission and objectives effectively. As part of the HR team, you will be instrumental in supporting this mission.

2. THE AIMS OF THE TRAINEESHIP AT THE EPPO ARE:

- To provide trainees with an understanding of the objectives and activities of the EPPO;
- To enable trainees to acquire practical experience and knowledge of the day-to-day work of the EPPO units and sectors;
- To provide the opportunity to work in a diverse, multicultural, and multi-linguistic environment, contributing to the development of mutual understanding, trust and tolerance;
- To promote European integration through active participation of trainees in the performance of tasks entrusted to the EPPO;
- To create awareness of true European citizenship;
- To enable trainees to put into practice knowledge acquired during their studies, and in their specific areas of competence;
- To introduce trainees to a new professional world and its constraints, duties and opportunities.

3. YOUR TASKS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Reporting directly to the Head of the HR Unit, you will be responsible for:

- Assisting in the selection procedures;
- Assisting the HR team members in various staff related topics;
- Contributing to the implementation of HR best practices;
- Assisting with various HR statistics and reports;
- General administrative support.

4. BASIC ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

To be considered eligible, you must satisfy each of the following basic eligibility requirements by the application's closing date:

I. University Diploma

Candidates must have completed the first cycle of a higher education course (university education) and obtained a full degree or its equivalent by the closing date for applications. Please consult the EPSO website² regarding examples of eligible diplomas in different Member States.

For declared on-going post-graduate studies an official declaration from the relevant university/institute must be provided.

Candidates whose university or post-graduate diplomas are not issued in one of the official EU languages must provide a certified translation of these documents in English.

Candidates must provide copies of diplomas or the relevant official certificates (self-certifications will not be accepted) of all university or post-university studies declared in their application³.

II. Language

For the trainees to fully profit from the traineeship and to be able to attend meetings and perform adequately, applicants must have a very good knowledge of the English language that corresponds at least to the B.2 level⁴, as official working language within the EPPO.

EPPO reserves the right to amend the language criteria as and when necessary. Any such changes will be published on the EPPO's website before the opening of the application period.

III. Specific knowledge/skills

Candidates may be requested to fulfil specific requirements to be eligible for the traineeship programme, e.g. a completed university or post-university course in criminal law or a related field. Any requirement shall be stated in the vacancy notice for traineeships.

You must also:

² The university level education required for the traineeship corresponds to a bachelor's degree or equivalent (at least a three-year degree, with at least 180 ECTS). The qualifications are equivalent to the mandatory qualifications for the recruitment of officials and temporary agents at grade AD5.

⁴ The assessment is done in accordance with the Common European Framework of reference for Languages (CEFR) Common European Framework of Reference for Language skills | Europass

- be a national of one of the Member States of the Union and enjoy full rights as a citizen;
- produce the appropriate character references as to the suitability for the performance of your duties⁵.

5. SELECTION CRITERIA

Annex to the Vacancy Notice

1. Application procedure

Please refer to the job description under `Your tasks and responsibilities` for detailed application instructions.

- Eligibility: Candidates are required to carefully check, in advance of submitting an application, whether they meet all the eligibility criteria – particularly concerning the required types of diplomas, as well as their linguistic abilities.
- Language: All applications must be in English. The interview will be held in English and other required language, if applicable.
- Application form: Applications not sent using the EPPO application form will be disqualified and treated as non-eligible, as will incomplete and/or not readable applications and not sent in PDF format.
- Education:
Only qualifications that have been awarded in EU Member States or that are subject to the equivalence certificates issued by the authorities in the EU Member States will be taken into consideration.
- Supporting documents: e.g. certified copies of degrees/diplomas, must be submitted together with application.
- Application deadline: The EPPO will disregard any application sent after the deadline. Applicants are strongly advised not to wait until the last day to submit their applications, since heavy internet traffic or a fault with the internet connection could lead to difficulties in submission. The EPPO cannot be held responsible for any delay due to such difficulties.

Please note: Due to the high number of applications expected, only candidates shortlisted for interview will be contacted. All candidates will be informed when a procedure is closed.

2. Selection procedure

1. Assessment of application: The applications are assessed by a Selection Board against the eligibility requirements and the selection criteria.
2. Traineeship interviews: The most suitable candidates are invited for an interview with the Selection Board.

3. Reserve list:

The Selection Board proposes, to the Administrative Director, a list of adequately skilled candidates to be included on a reserve list (talent pool) who most correspond to the profile sought. That Reserve List will be valid until the closure of the traineeship campaign.

The appointed candidate is required to make a declaration of confidentiality agreement before the recruitment.

The EPPO Appointing Authority will examine whether the successful candidate has any personal interest which may impair their independence or any other conflict of interest in relation to the position offered, and will adopt appropriate measures accordingly.

All applications are treated fairly. Applicants will be assessed on the basis of their qualifications and in strict compliance with the principle of equal opportunities in order to make the best possible match between the profile of the trainee and the requirements of the job.

Under no circumstances should candidates contact the Selection Board, directly or indirectly, concerning this selection procedure. The Appointing Authority reserves the right to disqualify any candidate who would disregard this instruction.

3. Equal opportunities

The EPPO applies a policy of equal opportunities and accepts applications without discrimination on any grounds such as sex, race, colour, ethnic or social origin, genetic features, language, religion or belief, political or any other opinion, membership of a national minority, property, birth, disability, age or sexual orientation.

4. Privacy Notice

The EPPO processes the personal data submitted by the applicants as part of the application form, in any submitted supporting document at any stage in the selection and recruitment process, and communication related thereto. The purpose of this processing operation is to assess the suitability of candidates for a position at the EPPO and to administer the documentation related to the selection and/or recruitment. This includes also the processing of the submitted data for related administrative aspects, such as e.g. financial reimbursements, calculation of entitlements, etc.

During this processing, the personal data will be made available to selected staff working in Human Resources, Finance & Procurement, and in case of appeals or complaints, the Legal Service. Further, it will be made accessible to the members of the Selection Board, the Appointing Authority and respective supporting staff. Lastly, it may also be shared with other parties in the context and purpose of audits, inspections and internal investigations, be they internal or by supervisory authorities.

The personal data collected for this purpose will be stored for no longer than three (3) years following the financial discharge for the year in which the recruitment was finalised, in order to comply with audit obligations, unless ongoing legal proceedings, investigations or audits require their continued storage. Where the process led to employment of a candidate, some of the documentation and personal data contained therein will be carried over into the personnel file and subject to the regime applicable thereto.

The processing is necessary to select and recruit candidates suitable to cover the vacancies of the EPPO and to therefore enable it to perform its tasks. The legal basis being implemented and binding on the EPPO's selection and recruitment process are the Staff Regulations of Officials and the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union and their implementing rules. The applicable legal framework for data protection purposes for this processing of administrative personal data is Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018 (OJ L 295 of 21.11.2018).

The applicant has the right at any time to request access to, rectification, restriction or erasure of their personal data. To exercise these rights, request assistance in their exercise or questions thereto, or file a complaint, they may contact the data controller, or the Data Protection Officer of the EPPO. They also have the right to address themselves to the European Data Protection Supervisor to lodge a complaint.

The controller is the EPPO, and for this process coordinated by the Head of Human Resources, can be contacted by email at EU-EPPO-TRAINEESHIP@ec.europa.eu.

The Data Protection Officer can be reached at EPPO-DPO@epo.europa.eu.

The European Data Protection Supervisor can be contacted at edps@edps.europa.eu.
