Reference number:	EPPO/2024/INTER/AD/010
Type of contract:	Temporary staff, full-time
Function group & grade:	AD 5 – AD 6
Place of work:	LUXEMBOURG
Closing date:	06 May 2024 ¹ 23:59 (CET)

The European Public Prosecutor's Office \(EPPO\), the independent public prosecution office of the European Union, is seeking applications for the position of Senior IT Security Operations Officer.

The EPPO is a new and fast-growing EU body responsible for investigating, prosecuting and bringing to judgment crimes against the financial interests of the EU. If you are interested in being part of a dynamic multicultural organisation, check out our website where you will find more information about career opportunities at the EPPO, and living and working in Luxembourg.

1. THE ROLE

As a member of the IT Security Operations (ITSecOPS) team, part of the Digital Ecosystems Support Sector within the Digital Services Unit, you will contribute to secure operations and to the development of various security projects and services underpinning the overall IT infrastructure and services of the EPPO.

The EPPO's IT environment is composed of two main parts: Operational and Administrative. From an operational perspective, the Case Management (eco)System is the core business system of the EPPO, allowing to European Prosecutors, EPPO case workers and analysts to perform all the casework and analysis related functions, at every stage of the case lifecycle, from initiation to investigation, prosecution and closure. From an administrative perspective, there are all the supporting digital services (and their underlying infrastructure and systems), used on a daily basis by all EPPO staff.

The ITSecOPS team is responsible for the setup, maintenance and daily operational support of the security of EPPO Case Management (eco)System and will be expanded to cover security of all other EPPO Systems. Each team member has a main technical security responsibility and, general knowledge on all other security operational areas. The team provides on-site support covering extended business hours (08:00 – 19:00) and will be on-call outside of these hours.

You will be in close contact with security governance representatives, user groups, preparing detailed security specifications, influencing security aspects of projects at business case level and implementing security requirements.

2. YOUR TASKS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Reporting to the Head of Digital Ecosystems Support Sector, your tasks will include, but not be limited to the following:

- Implementing, configuring, administering, monitoring and maintaining the EPPO IT security systems to deliver a 24/7 secure, reliable and efficient service for EPPO's digital systems;
- Coordinating with external suppliers and contractors for planning activities, reviewing deliverables and monitoring the implementation tasks;
- Operating EPPO IT security services according to agreed service levels, ITSM best practices, internal policies and procedures;
- Contributing within the area of IT security to the strategic vision of EPPO;
- Defining and elaborating technical security requirements and specifications;
- Participating as technical expert in EPPO's digital projects, seeking improvements and contributing to solution designs;
- Delivering technical security documentation and maintaining the configuration databases;
- Creating and testing standard security operational procedures;

- Providing 2nd and 3rd level of support to end users;
- Solving and coordinating security incidents and escalating to external parties;
- Participating in on-call standby shifts outside standard working hours according to the schedule.

3. BASIC ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

To be considered eligible, you must satisfy each of the following basic eligibility requirements by the application's closing date:

- You are temporary agent 2(f) who, both on the closing date for applications and on the day of filling the vacant post, are employed within your current agency or institution in a grade and function group corresponding to the published function group and grade (AD 5 – AD 6);
- You have at least 2 (two) years` service within your current agency or institution before moving. Any decision derogating from that principle shall be taken jointly by the two agencies/institution concerned, having regard to the interest of the service of both agencies/institution;
- You have successfully completed the probationary period provided for in the Article 14 of the CEOS, in the relevant function group.

You must also:

- be a national of one of the Member States of the Union and enjoy full rights as a citizen;
- have fulfilled any obligations imposed by the laws concerning military service;
- produce the appropriate character references as to the suitability for the performance of your duties²;
- be physically fit to perform your duties³; and
- produce evidence of a thorough knowledge of one of the official languages of the EU and of a satisfactory knowledge of another official language of the EU, to the extent necessary for the performance of your duties.

² If successful, you will be asked to provide, prior to recruitment, a formal certificate confirming the absence of any criminal record from pertinent authorities.

³ Prior to recruitment, the successful candidate will be examined by one of the Institutions' medical centres to confirm that the requirements of Article 12 (2) (d) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the EU are met.

Annex to the Vacancy Notice

1. Application procedure

Please refer to the job description under `Your tasks and responsibilities` for detailed application instructions.

- Eligibility: Candidates are required to carefully check, in advance of submitting an application, whether they meet all the eligibility criteria – particularly concerning the required types of diplomas and professional experience, as well as their linguistic abilities.
- Security clearance: The candidate must either be a holder of a valid security clearance up to the level of “SECRET UE/EU SECRET” or be willing to undergo the national security vetting procedure (in order to be allowed to perform the job).
- Language: English is the working language for operational and administrative activities of the EPPO, as established in the Decision 002/2020 of the College of the EPPO of 30 September 2020 on Internal Language Arrangements.

All applications must be in English. The interview will be held in English and other required language, if applicable.

- Application form: Applications not sent using the EPPO application form will be disqualified and treated as non-eligible, as will incomplete and/or not readable applications and not sent in PDF format.
- Professional experience:

ANY GIVEN PERIOD MAY BE COUNTED ONLY ONCE (in order to be calculated as eligible, years of studies or professional experience to be taken into account shall not overlap with other periods of studies or professional experience, e.g. if the applicant had a full-time job and did freelance consultancy work in the evenings and weekends, the days spent on the latter will not be added to the period).

Part-time work experience will be counted in proportion to the percentage of full-time hours worked; therefore, candidates are requested to indicate the percentage of part-time employment.

Compulsory military service or equivalent civilian service accomplished after achieving the minimum qualification stated above shall be taken into consideration as professional experience if official documentation is provided.

Free-lance or self-employed applicants must provide either a practicing certificate (or equivalent), or a copy of the entry in the relevant trade register, or any other official document (for example a tax document) showing clearly the length of the relevant professional experience.

- Education:

Only qualifications that have been awarded in EU Member States or that are subject to the equivalence certificates issued by the authorities in the EU Member States will be taken into consideration.

PhDs may be counted as professional experience only if the candidates received a study grant or salary during the time of PhD studies. The maximum duration counted for PhD is three years, provided that the PhD has been successfully concluded by the closing date for applications of the selection procedure.

- Supporting documents: e.g. certified copies of degrees/diplomas, references, proof of experience, etc. should not be sent at this stage, but must be submitted at a later stage of the procedure upon request of the EPPO.
- Application deadline: The EPPO will disregard any application sent after the deadline. Applicants are strongly advised not to wait until the last day to submit their applications, since heavy internet traffic or a fault with the internet connection could lead to difficulties in submission. The EPPO cannot be held responsible for any delay due to such difficulties.

Please note: Due to the high number of applications received in each selection procedure, only candidates shortlisted for interview will be contacted. All candidates will be informed when a procedure is closed.

2. Selection procedure

1. Assessment of application: The applications are assessed by a Selection Board against the eligibility requirements and the selection criteria.
2. Job interviews and written tests: The most suitable candidates are invited for an interview with the Selection Board and for a written test who best correspond to the profile sought and on condition that they have achieved a score of at least 60% during the evaluation of applications.

The EPPO is committed to providing access to all persons with disabilities and will provide necessary and reasonable accommodations to enable everyone to participate in its selection processes. If you require specific equipment or support, please let us know via email at EU-EPPO-RECRUITMENT@ec.europa.eu.

The EPPO is committed to providing access to all persons with disabilities and will provide necessary and reasonable accommodations to enable everyone to participate in its selection processes. If you require specific equipment or support, please let us know via email at EU-EPPO-RECRUITMENT@ec.europa.eu.

3. Reserve list:

The Selection Board proposes, to the Administrative Director, a list of adequately skilled candidates to be included on a reserve list (talent pool) who most correspond to the profile sought and who receive at least 60% of the maximum points of the combined interview and written test.

Candidates placed on the reserve list may be considered for a position within either the EPPO or, after eventual agreement by the EPPO, one of the EU Agency.

4. Second job interview: In line with the applicable rules, candidates on the reserve list may be invited for a second interview with the Administrative Director.

In accordance with Articles 11 and 11a of the Staff Regulations (SR) and Article 11 of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union (CEOS), the appointed candidate is required to make a declaration of interests before the recruitment.

The EPPO Appointing Authority will examine whether the successful candidate has any personal interest which may impair their independence or any other conflict of interest in relation to the position offered, and will adopt appropriate measures accordingly.

All applications are treated fairly. Applicants will be assessed on the basis of their qualifications and in strict compliance with the principle of equal opportunities in order to make the best possible match between the profile of the candidate and the requirements of the job.

Under no circumstances should candidates contact the Selection Board, directly or indirectly, concerning this selection procedure. The Appointing Authority reserves the right to disqualify any candidate who would disregard this instruction.

3. Equal opportunities

The EPPO applies a policy of equal opportunities and accepts applications without discrimination on any grounds such as sex, race, colour, ethnic or social origin, genetic features, language, religion or belief, political or any other opinion, membership of a national minority, property, birth, disability, age or sexual orientation.

4. Privacy Notice

The EPPO processes the personal data submitted by the applicants as part of the application form, in any submitted supporting document at any stage in the selection and recruitment process, and communication related thereto. The purpose of this processing operation is to assess the suitability of candidates for a position at the EPPO and to administer the documentation related to the selection and/or recruitment. This includes also the processing of the submitted data for related administrative aspects, such as e.g. financial reimbursements, calculation of entitlements, etc.

During this processing, the personal data will be made available to selected staff working in Human Resources, Finance & Procurement, and in case of appeals or complaints, the Legal Service. Further, it will be made accessible to the members of the Selection Board, the Appointing Authority and respective supporting staff. Lastly, it may also be shared with other parties in the context and purpose of audits, inspections and internal investigations, be they internal or by supervisory authorities.

The personal data collected for this purpose will be stored for no longer than three (3) years following the financial discharge for the year in which the recruitment was finalised, in order to comply with audit obligations, unless ongoing legal proceedings, investigations or audits require their continued storage. Where the process led to employment of a candidate, some of the documentation and personal data contained therein will be carried over into the personnel file and subject to the regime applicable thereto.

The processing is necessary to select and recruit candidates suitable to cover the vacancies of the EPPO and to therefore enable it to perform its tasks. The legal basis being implemented and binding on the EPPO's selection and recruitment process are the Staff Regulations of Officials and the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union and their implementing rules. The applicable legal framework for data protection purposes for this processing of administrative personal data is Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018 (OJ L 295 of 21.11.2018).

The applicant has the right at any time to request access to, rectification, restriction or erasure of their personal data. To exercise these rights, request assistance in their exercise or questions thereto, or file a complaint, they may contact the data controller, or the Data Protection Officer of the EPPO. They also have the right to address themselves to the European Data Protection Supervisor to lodge a complaint.

The controller is the EPPO, and for this process coordinated by the Head of Human Resources, can be contacted by email at EU-EPPO-RECRUITMENT@ec.europa.eu.

The Data Protection Officer can be reached at EPPO-DPO@eppo.europa.eu.

The European Data Protection Supervisor can be contacted at edps@edps.europa.eu.

5. Appeals

Candidates, who consider that their interests have been prejudiced by any decision related to the selection procedure, may lodge an administrative complaint under Article 90(2) of the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Union within the time limit provided for, at the following address:

European Public Prosecutor's Office (EPPO)
For the attention of the Administrative Director, Mr Olivier RAMSAYER
EPPO/2024/INTER/AD/010 – Senior IT Security Operations Officer
11, Avenue John F. Kennedy
1855 Luxembourg
Luxembourg
Email: EU-EPPO-RECRUITMENT@ec.europa.eu

The complaint must be lodged within three (3) months. The time limit for initiating this type of procedure starts to run from the time the candidate is notified of the act adversely affecting them.
