

V. CYPRUS

In general, the national competent authority for the notifications in relation to article 117 of the EPPO Regulation, has been stated in our national implementing law and it is the Attorney General's Office. There is an exception to this in relation to articles 33(2) and 104(7) of EPPO Regulation, where, the competent national authorities, would be the Cypriot courts.